

The New Zealand International Wine Show 2010

Conditions of Entry

1. Judging

Wines will be judged on a 20-point basis

Gold Medal	18.5 points and over
Silver Medal	17.0 points and over
Bronze Medal	15.5 points and over

Recall Judging

All wines awarded 17.8 points or above by the averaged scores of the 3-member senior judging panel will be rejudged, using new samples before a final medal score is confirmed. No wine will be awarded a Gold Medal without a second and comprehensive assessment using the recall system.

- Wines from any country, supplier, producer or agent can be entered.
- Entry fee per wine is $49 including GST. Cheques should be made out to The NZ International Wine Show (GST 71-132-943) or direct credit can be made to account 03 0275 0417120 02. International entries can pay by direct credit or by using the credit cards Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Diners.

6. No unfinished tank or barrel sample can be entered and the wine supplied for judging must conform in both quality and style to that made available for sale in the general marketplace. Quality audits may be made by the Chief Judge, whose decision will be final.
7. Wines can be entered without finished labels provided the wine can be supplied with full legal retail presentation by the required dates. Deadlines are tight for photography purposes so entrants should bear this in mind when entering a wine into the competition.

The medal results are embargoed until Monday 13th September 2010. Entrants may not use or promote the medal results in any way until the official release of awards on 13th September 2010. The Trophies will be announced at the Awards dinner on Saturday 18th September 2010. All entrants are required to abide by the restrictions on the use or publication of the results and failure to comply with these rules may result in the cancellation of medals and awards.

Note: Entering a wine for judging in the New Zealand International Wine Show will be accepted as automatic acceptance of the promotional fees and conditions applicable to the show. Only Trophy winners and the gold medal wines in The Champions List are subject to these fees.
